

EVERYBODY ALWAYS – BOB GOFF

INTRODUCTION

We often prioritize our own wants and needs at the expense of others. Most of us desire to be loved well, but struggle to love in the same capacity. What if we spent our short time on Earth getting to know Jesus? This same Jesus who is immensely patient and moves closer to us despite our mess ups? Imagine, if we could point others toward Jesus by demonstrating the same love and patience He has shown to us?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Share a time you took a wrong direction on a trip. How did you feel? How did you find your way back on track?
2. Read 1 Timothy 1:16. Jesus showed us mercy so that He might display what? Who is this for?
3. How can we have humility (Philippians 2:3), and yet show power, love, and self-discipline (2 Timothy 1:7) when engaging other people?
4. How can we move closer to God despite our circumstances?
5. Bob says, “People don’t grow where they’re informed – they grow where they’re accepted”. How does your small group do this well? How could you become stronger?

MOVING FORWARD

1. Who has God placed in your neighborhood or work place that could use a spiritual guide toward Jesus?
2. Bob Goff said we must ask ourselves, “Why are you doing what you’re doing”? Take time this week to prayerfully evaluate your life based upon this question. What can we do today that would help us see life’s circumstances with a different perspective?
