

Part 5

Discussion Questions:

1. What stood out to you from the message on Sunday?
2. Reflecting on the Enron story, what do you think contributes to corporate or systemic corruption? Do you see similar patterns in our culture today?
3. What are some ways we may unknowingly contribute to a culture of greed or dishonesty in our own lives?
4. Paul's approach to corruption was different from activism or policy changes; he focused on how Christians live out their faith daily. How does this approach compare with how you typically view change?
5. In what areas of life do you see opportunities to "live counter-culturally" as Paul encouraged? How could these actions impact those around you?
6. Rodney Stark's research suggests that the early church changed society by serving others. How can we, as individuals or a small group, follow this example in our own community?

Next Steps:

- What opportunities do you have right now to live out the mission of Christ in your relationships, work, or community?
- What is one opportunity you will do this week?
